During a mission to destroy a ketracel-white facility in Cardassian space, the Dax symbiont was badly injured. Jadzia, along with the rest of her crew, was rescued soon after by the Rotarran.[<http://WWW.yhht-valve.com/belimofm.htm> BELIMO??]

Jadzia was given command of the Defiant in early 2374 by Admiral Ross after promoting Captain Sisko to be his Adjutant, and when it was uncovered that a major reason for the Dominion's dominance was a sensor array monitoring all activity across five sectors, Jadzia commanded a successful mission to destroy it. [<http://WWW.yhht-valve.com/belimofm.htm> BELIMO??] She was aboard the Defiant for Operation Return and was present for Sisko's near-suicide mission into the wormhole to stop Dominion reinforcements from coming through. Fortunately, the Prophets intervened, saving Dax and the rest of the crew of the Defiant. Sadly, though, while her crewmates were fighting the battle, Gul Dukat (controlled by a Pah-wraith) struck her down. She was in a Bajoran temple when Dukat arrived and tried to destroy a sacred Orb in order to imprison the Prophets in the wormhole; when she tried to stop him, he killed her. Her symbiont was saved and transferred to another Trill. (DS9: "Tears of the Prophets", "Shadows and Symbols") [<http://WWW.yhht-valve.com/belimofm.htm> BELIMO??]
