Polarity (Box Version) - Temporarily Out Of Stock

Master the forces of magnetism in this Games 100 title! Packaged in a box for a unique and wonderful gift. Polarity is unique and a one of a kind game, players take turns making magnetic discs defy the laws of gravity and Lean in mid air! By strategically placing your discs on the canvas mat, you begin to trap your opponent so you have the advantage to gain points. As a result, chaos ensues which causes discs to collide and a magnetic frenzy could erupt which can result in scoring opportunities. Towers of discs are scored as points; the player with the most points at the end of a game wins. Watch out for the always-dangerous red disc, any movement of that piece and the game is over!
